Overview

Deepesh has almost 20 years of domestic and international experience gained working in leading law firms in Australia, Canada and Japan. He specialises in corporate and finance transactions and has acted on matters ranging from capital raisings for startups to large, complex domestic and cross border transactions for public listed corporations. His clients include individuals, start-up companies, small to medium sized businesses and large public and private corporations.

Prior to joining Nexus, Deepesh was Special Counsel at a global law firm. Deepesh is admitted to practice in Australia and Canada and is co-author of "Business Laws of Canada" (Thomson West).

Deepesh is also a director of a not for profit organisation and a community bank where he draws on his business and legal experience. He is commended for being accessible, easy to work with and for providing practical, timely and commercial advice.

Expertise

Corporate and Commercial

Deepesh acts for individuals and businesses in the following corporate matters:

- Business sales / purchases (M&A) – acting for vendors and purchasers with respect to private share and asset sales and corporate restructures.
- Business structuring - acting for newly established businesses and start-ups in providing business structuring advice and documenting partnership and joint venture agreements.
- Corporate governance matters – advising boards of directors on corporate governance matters

Cross border transactions

- Deepesh specialises in acting for Australian companies expanding overseas as well as foreign individuals and corporations acquiring established businesses or incorporating new entities in Australia. He also acts for domestic and foreign companies on cross border issues and trade.

Startups and Fast Growing Companies

- Deepesh works with entrepreneurs and startups to enable them to achieve their goals from inception through to business expansion. Key areas of focus for Deepesh are assisting businesses to access foreign markets and assisting them with capital raisings.

Banking and Finance

- Deepesh advises on, negotiates and documents loan structures and lending documents, including facility agreements, security documents, syndicated and club lending arrangements, note issuances, bank guarantees, and transactional banking arrangements.
- Having acted for all of the major Australian banks and worked in house at a leading global bank, Deepesh is uniquely placed to advise businesses on managing debt finance transactions with their financiers.
- Industries in which Deepesh has acted include retail, health and aged care, construction, hospitality, manufacturing and professional services.

Property Development Finance

- Deepesh acts for senior lenders, mezzanine financiers and developers on each stage of property development financing, including acquisition finance for the purchase of the site, structured property finance to fund construction and ultimately conversion of finance to effect long term debt strategies.
