Overview

Payal is a corporate and commercial lawyer specialising in corporate advisory and transactional work for international and domestic clients across a broad range of industry sectors.

Payal has gained significant experience working in private practice with international law firms and boutique law firms across Sydney, Brisbane and Perth. Prior to joining Nexus, Payal was a Partner at a law firm in Sydney.

Payal is commended for her commercial, responsive and proactive approach. Payal has a long-standing interest particularly in the Indian and Japanese transactional markets, speaks fluent Hindi and was formerly on the Board of the Australia India Council (appointed by the Australian Minister for foreign affairs).

Expertise

Payal has extensive experience in mergers and acquisitions (regulated and unregulated, often with a cross-border focus), equity capital markets including capital raisings and initial public offerings, infrastructure projects (including port and rail development), capital management and restructuring transactions, debt funding, general corporate and commercial advisory and resources transactions (predominantly hard-rock mining and joint ventures).

Payal also has significant experience in acting in project, corporate and debt finance transactions, mainly for borrowers and non-bank lenders. Payal has previously worked with the residential development practice within an international firm's projects and construction team in Sydney to provide project finance, cross-border transactional and corporate advice on large projects, with a particular focus on real estate developments, infrastructure and mining and resources.

Career Highlights
