Overview

Kevin specialises in dispute resolution and litigation, with over 10 years' experience locally and interstate. He has acted in a broad range of commercial disputes, across a diverse range of industries.

Kevin always seeks to obtain a commercial resolution for clients; as swiftly as possible. If litigation is required, Kevin adopts a pragmatic approach to ensure that clients' costs are contained without compromising the quality of representation.

Kevin's clients range from corporations and construction participants to individuals and charities.

Expertise

Dispute Resolution and Litigation

Including general commercial disputes, investor disputes, wills and estates, insolvency and debt recovery.

Kevin has acted in matters in every superior Court, as well as lower courts and numerous tribunals.

Construction and Infrastructure

Kevin has extensive experience acting in construction-related disputes. This experience includes claims arising out of the construction contract, contract administration disputes and numerous Security of Payment claims and defences.
