Expertise

Estate Planning, Probate and Estate Administration

Succession or Estate Planning ensures your assets are managed and ultimately distributed the way you choose, delivering maximum benefit and protection to your beneficiaries.

Keith has a particular interest in estate planning and works closely with financial advisors and accountants to provide holistic solutions. His expertise in this area includes:

- estate document drafting including Wills, Enduring Powers of Guardianship and Enduring Powers of Attorney.
- addressing issues associated with ageing including:
 - cognitive decline
 - advanced care directives ("living wills")
 - seniors living and asset protection
 - protecting seniors from financial and other abuse
 - transferring of assets from one generation to the next.

Keith also attends to:

- the formation of Testamentary Trusts
- addressing capacity issues
- conveyancing and senior living arrangements (nursing homes and the purchase of senior living and retirement homes)
- obtaining grants of Probate or Letters of Administration
- the Administration of deceased estates

Claims against estates/Family Provision claims

Whether you are the Executor of a Will which has been challenged or are contemplating challenging a Will yourself, these are matters requiring careful consideration and Keith is particularly well placed to provide you with experienced professional guidance.

Commercial Agreements and Litigation

Keith has extensive commercial litigation experience and assists clients to:

- Recover money owed
- Recover from directors and officers, money owed by liquidated companies
- Resolve disputes via mediation, arbitration or, where necessary, litigation
- Enforce their contractual rights
